

ASHIHARA KARATE World Championship

Bucharest, ROMANIA

November 4th to 8th, 2020

Dear NIKO Branch Chiefs,

On behalf of NEW INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION ASHIHARA KAIKAN, I have the privilege to invite you to 2020 Ashihara Karate World Championship.
The event will take place in Bucharest, Romania, between November 4th and 8th, 2020.

During the Sabaki Camp 2019 in Denmark, Kancho together with the NIKO Committees Members discussed some changes to the competition and the organizing rules.

Attached please find the following documents, approved by Kancho:

- Kancho's invitation to the 2020 World Championship
- NIKO Competition Rules
- World Championship Organizing Guide

Please study the rules carefully, and don't be afraid to ask questions.
We want to clarify any questions, as soon as possible, and not during the World Championship.

If you have any questions regarding the new published competition rules, please direct them to:
Mr. Mads Jensen (Denmark), NIKO Referee Committee Manager.

For questions regarding the 2020 World Championship, please address them to:
Mr. Nicolae Dascalu (Romania), NIKO Organizing Committee Manager.

Many of you have visited Romania in the past, and had the opportunity to experience our hospitality. Once again, we welcome all of you with open heart, and hope you can bring your contribution to this premier event in our organization.

Best regards,

Nicolae Dascalu
NIKO Organising Committee Manager

Date: December 12th, 2019
